Next Meeting, August 28 Lunch Meeting
 "Young Wings"
 by Jim Jenner

This is a presentation of one man's journey through 50 years of pigeon keeping and how he is working to prove that the birds have a profound effect on children.

Jim Jenner is a former newspaper writer, CBS News producer, and founder of the award-winning television production company Pacific Communications Inc. [PACCOM] whose clients included Microsoft and Olympia Beer.

Jenner completed "Young Wings" in 2014. It is a documentary on the power of pigeons in children's lives. He then published his first novel, "The Featherhood", which chronicles the story of several inner-city youths in Tacoma, WA who save the life of an injured imported racing pigeon. In 2015 Jim completed a narrated audio book of his novel and a line of apparel featuring "The Featherhood" theme.
